

Angels of Beslan

Middle School No. 1, Beslan, North Ossetia, Russia

September 1 – 3, 2004

In early January 2006, I sent an email to Hope for Beslan asking them if they had a list of those who died in Beslan during the siege of Middle School No. 1 in September 2004. I received a very nice reply with a list of names and birthdays in Russian, a link to the Mothers of Beslan website and a link to the Tragedy at Beslan website. The Mothers of Beslan website has pictures of all those who died along with their names in English. To create the following pages, I used Free Translation Online to translate the Russian names into English, then matched up the names with pictures. Both of these sources alphabetize the names of the Angels by their first name. I went in and alphabetized them by their last name; this should make it a bit easier to see how many families lost so many of their relatives at one time.

If your Russian is really good, check out the Tragedy at Beslan website. This web page was created by the Survivors of Beslan and has an extensive amount of news and photos. There is an option for English and German, but not all of the pages are translated.

То, что случилось с нашими детьми 1-го сентября, мы никогда не забудем. Тот, кто сделал это — проклят навсегда. Тот, кто безразличен к этому — бесчеловечен. Тот, кто помог нам — наш друг навеки.

We will never forget what happened to our children on September 1. Those who had committed that crime were damned forever. Those who are indifferent about it are inhuman. Those who had helped us were our friends forevermore.
